Record Crowd Sees Babe Ruth Make 1922 Debut; Browns Win Weird Game

BLOW-UP IN NINTH LETS BROWNS WIN; BAMBINO HITLESS

Williams Also Fails to Sock—Jacobson's Homer Climaxes Freak Inning.

NEW YORK, May 26.—A wildly cheering throng, vying in numbers with any ever to attend a world's series game, jammed the Polo Grounds here this afternoon to see Babe Ruth, behemoth of swat, make his 1922 debut. The crowd failed to see either Babe or his fast-traveling home run rival, Ken Williams deliver a circuit clout, but they witnessed one of the freakiest and most exciting games in years, the St. Louis Browns triumphing over Babe and his mates, 5 to 2. The crowd was estimated at 40,000.

While the two home run celebrities—three, counting Bob Meusel, who also returned to the game this afternoon, through Judge Landis' order—failed to deliver with their specialties, homers were a decided factor in scoring of the two teams. "Baby Doll" Jacobson of the Browns and Aaron Ward of the Yanks being the clouters. Jacobson's homer, coming as it did with the bases full, resulted in the complete rout of the Yanks.

In four times at bat, Ruth fanned first, popped out to McManus next, and then grounded out to Sisler in his last two trips.

Ninth Inning Weird
Until the hectic ninth inning Sam Jones and Urban Shocker had engaged in a nip-and-tuck pitcher's battle with Jones holding a slight margin. The Yanks had broken through in the fifth for two runs through an error by Tobin, which gave Baker a life and a homer in to the stand by Ward. The Browns came back with one run in the eighth, and Jones had retired the first two men in the ninth before any trouble threatened.

Pinch hitters Shorten and Collins then came through with singles and Tobin grounded to Pipp for what looked an easy third out. Pipp tossed to Jones at first for the play and Empire Chili called that Brown outfielder out, retiring the side scoreless. The players of both teams and spectators started to leave, but when Pipp noticed that the Yank pitcher had dropped the ball, he reversed his decision and the game resumed. Shorten scored the tying run on the play. Gerber then singled and Sisler was intentionally walked, filling the bases. Jones was unable to get them over for Williams and he also walked, forcing in Collins. Jacobson then clinched the game by hitting into the stands for a homer driving in three men ahead of him, and doubling the afternoon for Babe and his teammates.

Ruth's only feat of note during the entire game was a difficult running catch of a foul drive by Sisler in the fourth inning. He was given a tremendous ovation after the catch.

Costs Big Laugh.
The stands were packed to the rafters two hours before game time. Ruth appeared in a brand new uniform and drew a tremendous ovation as he walked across the field, with his orphan mate Bob Meusel.

The great King doffed his hat so many times that he decided to keep it off and he walked bareheaded to the bench.

He drew a big laugh when first time up in batting practice when instead of doing his patented socking he dropped a bunt down the third base line. Then he knocked two over the rightfield fence and went back to the bench with a broad smile on his face.

Ken Blushes.
The crowd was in an affectionate mood and gave Kenneth Williams, slugger and Babe's rival a hand that actually made him blush. When the great George Sisler appeared he drew an ovation that lasted nearly two minutes. The Browns all gave him the laugh.

The Rivals—A Comparison

KEN.

BABE.

Ken Williams of the St. Louis Browns, who is showing the way to Babe Ruth this season in the matter of home runs, is of a type directly opposite to Ruth.

Williams is tall and slender, but possesses a great pair of shoulders which give him his drive.

Ruth, while tall, is built on much heavier lines than Williams and weighs perhaps 40 pounds more.

Williams is the nervous type, Ruth the stolid. Williams worries when in a slump. Ruth accepts such things as a matter of course.

Williams' features are sharp. Ruth's are rounded. Williams looks the athlete all over, as he doesn't carry a pound of extra weight. Ruth, with his large waist line, always seems lacking in condition.

In only one respect is there a sameness, both players strike out a great deal. This is true of all batters who are free swingers.

Tobin reaching third and Gerber going to second on the throw to the plate. Sisler was purposely passed. Williams walked, forcing Tobin over the plate. Jacobson hit a homerun into the left field bleachers emptying the sacks. Seaver doubled to left. Ellerbe fanned. Seven runs, five hits, one error.

Fourth Inning.
St. Louis—Gerber grounded to Pipp. Seaver flied to Ruth who made a fancy running catch and the stands roared. Williams flied to Baker. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Fifth Inning.
St. Louis—Jacobson out, Baker to Pipp. Seaver flied to Pipp. Ellerbe doubled to center. Witt dropped the ball after a long run. McManus fanned. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Sixth Inning.
St. Louis—Shocker out, Ward to Pipp. Tobin out, Ward to Pipp. Gerber walked. Sisler singled to right. Gerber pulling up at second. Williams flied to Witt. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Seventh Inning.
St. Louis—Jacobson doubled down left field foul line. Seaver flied to Pipp. Ellerbe out, Jones to Pipp. Jacobson reaching third. McManus popped to Baker. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Eighth Inning.
St. Louis—Shocker out, Jones to Pipp. Tobin beat out a bunt down the first base line. Gerber out, Scott to Pipp. Tobin stopping at second. Sisler singled to left, scoring Tobin. Williams singled to right. Seaver reaching third. Williams stole second. Jacobson out, Baker to Pipp. One run, three hits, no errors.

Ninth Inning.
St. Louis—Seaver out, Ward to Pipp. Ellerbe out, Ward to Pipp. Shorten batted for McManus. Shorten singled past Ward. Collins batted for Shocker. Collins singled through Scott, reaching third. Tobin was safe when Jones dropped Pipp's easy throw. Shorten scoring and Collins stopped at second. Gerber singled to right, scoring Collins.

INVENTORS ENTER "MYSTERY" CAR IN INDIANAPOLIS RACE

New Car, With Revolutionary Ideas in Motor Construction, to Have Tryout.

NEW YORK, May 26.—A mystery car will carry the life hopes of two inventors when the barrier is sprung Memorial Day on the 500 mile sweepstakes at Indianapolis, and if their words are to be taken at face value, a victory for them will mean the loosening of a thunder bolt on the internal combustion engine industry—automobile, airplane and marine.

Grouped with their assistants in a green office in a more greasy shop on the upper west side, the two inventors, Rudolph Wehr and J. H. Lehman, with great reluctance partly lifted the veil of the mystery this afternoon.

Wehr's invention is the more important of the two. He claims to have perfected the rotary valve engine.

He has spent 14 years, days and nights without previous technical instruction, evolving a motor, the secret heart of which will not preclude smooth opening and closing of a valve without exertion of horse power.

The result is an engine, he says, 25 percent lighter than the present valve type and, the secret, the engine is arrived at by engineering, calculation and untiring experimenting, he said, using standard metals alloys. The saving in fuel consumed, in addition to increased efficiency will be incalculable, they declare.

The other invention concerns the ignition system—a subordination of an alternating current for the direct. Lehman says the theory has been used in a scattered way but never with the success that he has achieved with Wehr's motor. Both labored here together for eight years.

Alternating ignitions means higher speed, twin spark and work from a single battery, eliminating the pitting of the spark plugs.

Wehr and Lehman have combined their two perfected ideas in a car that will be shipped to Indianapolis tomorrow. Its unusual specifications, sent in advance, caused laughter, then consternation among automobile experts who learned of the entry. The race this year is open to cars of 150 cubic inches motor. The Wehr motor is only 120 cubic inches.

Neither Wehr, Lehman nor L. P. Come, who is making their affairs, would talk about the speed of the racing car they have fabricated, but there are reliable reports that it has registered between 110 and 120 miles an hour. It has been tuned up only in the dead of night on lonely roads to aid in keeping the secret. It has 2 5-16 inches bore and 4 1/2 inches stroke.

The car will be the most unusual on the Indianapolis track. It is a single seater and will carry no mechanic, only Frank E. Davidson, well known pilot, at the wheel. After the car is shipped to Indianapolis tomorrow, Wehr, Lehman, Come and Davidson will immediately follow.

ST. ADELBERTS WIN FROM WARSAW CLUB
St. Adelberts school baseball team staged a batting rally in the ninth inning yesterday afternoon and defeated the Warsaw Athletic club at the New Jersey ball diamond by the score of 6 to 4.

A single by Buck Wobleswski, followed by a circuit smash by Olie Zell clinched the game in the final period. Wobleswski's hitting featured the contest. Besides his timely single he tripled in the fifth inning. The batteries for the St. Adelbert team were Klosewski and Sobierski; for Warsaw, Kussler and Holka.

PERKEY CUBS TO MEET MERCHANDISE TEAM
The Perkey Cubs will meet the Pellah Merchandise nine this afternoon at the Studebaker ball field. The game is scheduled to start at 2 o'clock. Pellah's pitching team is playing its opening game of the season. The Perkey aggregation has played several out of town games and shown a good advantage, the batteries for the Cubs will be Fetters and Smith.

Notre Dame Nine and Track Men Booked for Hard Week

Castner's No-Hit Game Against Purdue Feature—Schedule to Date.

Although athletic squads at Notre Dame will perform on three occasions in the coming week, campus fans will be given the opportunity to witness only one contest on Carter Field—the baseball game between Beloit and Notre Dame, which will be played Thursday afternoon. In addition to this, the track squad will enter the state meet at Lafayette Saturday, while the basketball team will play St. Viator's Saturday at Cub park in Chicago.

With a hard week behind them, Coach Halas' proteges rested yesterday afternoon. Practice will be resumed Monday, and Halas will again take up the task of developing an efficient outfield. Perhaps the brightest spot in the playing of the team last week was the slight improvement which was noticed in the outfield. Kelly redeemed himself for his poor work in the Kalamazoo game by making two sensational catches when the Irish played Purdue Wednesday, and also fielded well in the Northwestern and Illinois games. "Chuck" Foley was called from the bench to handle left field and he made good with a vengeance, getting two hits in the Northwestern game, one of them a home run, two more in the Purdue game, and bringing in one of Notre Dame's three runs in the Illinois contest. Next week Frank Thomas, who has been on the sick list for the last two weeks, is expected to resume active work in right field. His return will strengthen the team materially both in batting and fielding.

St. Viators Strong.
Just at present the contest with St. Viator's is causing Coach Halas more worry than the one with Beloit. The Saints provided one of the big upsets of the college baseball season a year ago when they defeated Notre Dame easily, 7-0. The Irish were then just returning from a triumphant journey, on which they had disposed of Iowa by a 4-1 score. Castner was slated to pitch and the Halasmen were naturally confident of winning. But the Saints hammered Paul to every corner of the field, while the Irish hitters were unable to touch the opposing hurler.

Early this spring, when the campaign headquarters for the endowment fund in Chicago planned to stage a baseball game with Notre Dame as one of the participants for the benefit of the drive, St. Viator's offered to furnish the opposition. As the Chicago Nationals were playing away from home on May 27, Cub Park was secured for the game. Next Saturday, then, will mark the second appearance of the Halasmen in a big league park this spring. For on the training trip they met and defeated St. Xavier's at Redland Field in Cincinnati.

Since it was Paul Castner who was treated so unmercifully by the Saints last year, Halas will probably give the big southpaw a chance to come back next Saturday. Dick Falvey's game knee will undoubtedly keep him out of the game for several weeks, so he is eliminated as a possibility. Red Magevney is being slated to pitch the Beloit game Thursday.

Castner Slated for Majors.
Paul Castner's great performance against Purdue Wednesday, when he held the Bollermakers hitless and runless for nine innings marks him as big league material. His showing becomes more significant when it is remembered that Purdue is considered one of the hard hitting teams in the conference this year. Until Castner came to Lafayette, Purdue had won ten straight games on its field against such teams as Ohio State and Chicago.

NILES WINNER IN TRI-COUNTY MEET

Weaver Individual Star—Benton Harbor and St. Joseph Second and Third.

NILES, Mich., May 26.—With a total of 65 1-3 points, the Niles high school track team easily won first place from its nearest competitor, Benton Harbor, in the Tri-County track meet held at Plym park in this city Saturday. Benton Harbor succeeded in scoring 42 1-3 points, while St. Joseph was third with 21 1-3.

Malcolm Weaver, local track star, was individual point winner, taking first in the 100, the 220, and the 440 yard dashes, and participating in the winning relay.

Throughout the contest Coach Walker's proteges displayed fine form, scoring first in all the running track events, and placing second or third in all field events. Darling, Van Noppen, Weaver and Otsett, in the high jump, the 220 low hurdles, the mile and the 880 yard run, topped the field.

Neidinger of Benton Harbor starred in the shot put and the discus throw, while Edmunds, also of Benton Harbor, did some excellent work in the pole vault. Boan of Benton Harbor scored in the broad jump.

This meet decided the high school track championship for Berrien, Cass and Van Buren counties, but leaves the Berrien county championship undecided until the county meet is held at St. Joseph on May 27.

In the Junior high meet between Elkhart and Niles, Elkhart scored first with 55 1/2 to Niles' 28 1/2 points.

Three State Track Marks Go in High School Meet
RICHMOND, Ind., May 26.—Three state track records—the low hurdle, half-mile record and broad jump—were shattered in the annual state high school track and field meet which was won by Technical of money himself now. He used to say to all cross-examiners—"I'll fight anyone the public wants me to fight," but now without any embarrassment he adds, "If I get the money."
